TIPS & GUIDE TO ACQUIRING XM HANDCRAFTED PIECES

We are very glad to have you with us today at the STGCC 2017! If you are reading this, you are likely in the queue to purchase some of our very limited collectibles. In order to streamline the purchasing experience, please ensure you have the following ready;

1. ONLY REGISTERED MEMBERS will be able to order via our touch screen counters.
 - a. If you do not have an account, sign up now at www.xm-studios.com/pages/registration.aspx via your mobile device. It only takes a couple of minutes!
 - b. If you already have a member account, login via www.xm-studios.com (Top right corner) to update your particulars. Make sure you have your password ready to avoid holding up the queue.

Not getting ready the above will cause delays to you making purchases which means the higher the chance your target collectibles may be sold out by the time it gets to your turn.

2. To quickly secure your orders, plan ahead how much you are intending to spend and by which mode. A XM guide will be at the queue to direct you to your intended payment counter. If you are going to pay by multiple payment modes (e.g. Nets and Cash top up) please indicate that to the XM guide and you will be directed to the best counter.

To help with your planning, start reviewing the products available for pre ordering on the next page.

IMPORTANT TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read carefully as non-compliance can result in your order being delayed or cancelled with your deposit forfeited!

1. All figures are quoted in SGD, unless otherwise stated.
2. Deposits are only refundable or transferable to another buyer or for another product if XM cancels release of said products. XM Studios will ship or allow collection of the products only to the original buyer. Proxies or representatives will not be entertained.
3. Prestige Member discount for eligible products are valid only for customers who has achieved Prestige status at the time of the PO or deposit collection for said product (not after). It is not retrospective. E.g. Customers achieving Prestige status AFTER paying the PO deposit for product A will be charged the full retail price for product A.
4. Before buying, customer should check and confirm whether the XM product is allowed to be sold and shipped to their mailing address. No freight forwarder or PO Box addresses will be entertained. XM reserves the right to cancel and forfeit any orders whose shipping address are not compliant to our licensed zones.
5. Final release date of this product is subject to delays by manufactory or approval factors.
6. Customers are expected to collect the productions and pay any balance remaining within 2 weeks upon notification of collection by XM. If we do not hear from the customer, a reminder via recorded phone call, text message and email will then be sent and collection dated extended for another 2 weeks (Total of 1 month from date of collection notification). Non collection of products after 1 month will be deemed as product cancellation and deposit forfeited.
7. No returns policy. All products sold are strictly non-refundable or exchangeable for other products.
8. Stocks are extremely limited and it is expected that multiple buyers are attempting to buy the same product at the same time (at check-out page). Hence, it is possible to encounter stock not available at the moment buyer clicks 'purchase' – this is not system bug. In rare cases where 2 customers have purchased at the exact same moment causing product to be oversold, XM will issue a full refund to affected customers.
9. By proceeding with this order, you have deemed to have read, understood and agreed to our terms.
